HOME BUILDING PROBLEMS AIRE

Business Men's Association Takes New Tact in Development Idea

MAIL SERVICE IS DISCUSSED

Getting away from the old idea that it takes a big industry to develop a town the Charleroi Business Men's Association Thursday night at their regular meeting right about faced on a new tact, starting out on the theory that new dwellings and business blocks are the things needed now. To that end several real estate men were present to discuss the problem. Then it was brought out why there is not greater freedom in the building line in Charleroi.

Real estate men stated frankly that if tenants were a little more careful about the prompt payment of their rents and took a little better care of properties in which they lived, people with money would consider putting up more houses. But until conditions relating to tenancy was bettered, the real estate men told, there would be no building boom. The suggestion was raised that a building and loan association be created to aid those who are willing to assume the burden of loans in building and the scheme found favor with members of the association.

The meeting of the association was held in the free library rooms of the Odd Fellows' building at the corner of Fifth street and Washington avenue and, was attended by a representative number of business men. President John B. Schafer was in the chair with Howard W. Wilson secretary at his place.

The matter of freeing the Charleroi-Monessen bridge was taken up and committee reports were made. An effort will be made to get the question before the attention of the grand juries in both Washington and Westmoreland counties, and in the meantime a committee consisting of H. J. Booth, C. R. Peregrine, J. B. Tussing, Walter Byerly and Frank Haines, appointed Thursday night, will work to arouse favorable sentiment.

The matter of improved mail service was brought up and T. J. Allen of a special committee asked for a report. There was little to be brought before the attention of the association, but the committee was continued. In addition to its other duties the committee was instructed to ascertain what could be done toward getting an open mail box established at the P. E. R. station here, the idea being to have arrangements made for opening the box for each mail train, assuring prompt service. This matter will be pushed hard.

When the question of prohibiting the operations of the class known as fakirs came up the committee looking after details reported it had affairs in hand for presentation to council at the next meeting of that body.

Plans of the proposed establishment of a credit association in the county for the protection of all county merchants came up and were outlined to some extent. The organization of a credit association will be one of the chief features brought out at the coming county convention to be held here on March 16.

CHARLEROI DAY PROPOSED ON SEASHORE BOARDWALK

Atlantic City Board of Trade Evolves Brilliant Idea But it is Not Well Received Here.

That Charleroi is not worried particularly about a "Charleroi day on the Boardwalk" at Atlantic City, though the borough has been imported to celebrate such a day. At the meeting of the Business Men's Association Thursday evening a communication was received from the Atlantic City Board of Trade asking if Charleroi wouldn't like the idea of a Charleroi day. Remarks were made that it would be hard to scrape up a sufficient number for a showing, hence the matter was dropped without any action being taken. However there will be no Charleroi day on Atlantic City's boardwalk.

ELEVEN AT PITT FROM CHARLEROI

University Has Good Representation of Students From Valley

ALL ACTIVE IN SCHOOL LIFE

According to a report from the Department of School Relations of the University of Pittsburgh there are 11 Charleroi students now in attendance at that institution and they are making a creditable record for themselves. The nature of the work being done in the classrooms by these boys and the manner in which they are actively participating has won for them commendation.

In the College John Hugus is enrolled and not only is he applying himself arduously to his school work but is developing into one of the most promising track men at Pitt this spring.

In the School of Economics are enrolled William W. Booth, W. D. Berryman and John D. Lutes. All are making good in school. Berryman is captain of the Freshman basketball team and has as a home town companion in that sport John Lutes. Booth has the distinction of being one of the best students in his class and he has done some good work on the student publication, "The Pitt Weekly."

In the School of Dentistry, H. Austin Stahlman, son of Dr. D. C. Stahlman, the president of the Monongahela Valley Pitt club is enrolled. He is a good dental student and is a member of the varsity football squad. Doss T. James is active in the varsity Glee club and is secretary of the Valley Pitt club. Shapor Blythe and Paul Trnavsky complete the list of local boys in the dental school.

W. Roy James is registered in the School of Chemistry and is one of the most active Pitt boosters in school. William W. Poundstone is in his second year in the School of Pharmacy. Jacob W. Mitchell is a Junior in the School of Medicine.

There are nine alumni of the University now living in Charleroi and four of them are active members of the Alumni Association. The Pitt men here are: Dr. F. C. Stahlman, Dr. A. O. Davis, Dr. V. P. Vieslet, Dr. John McNaughton, Postmaster J. K. Smith, Dr. C. B. James, Dr. A. S. Sickman, Dr. F. L. Crow and Dr. D. E. Sloan.

BLASTING STARTED TO RECOVER BODIES

Blasting with dynamite is being started in the Monongahela river here today in an effort to raise the bodies of John Sherman, Smith Turner, George Cooper and John Buxton, drowned Saturday night. The blasting is being done at the request of several local colored men, friends of the quarter, and a persistent effort will be made to bring the bodies to the surface. The question of where to blast was

PRESIDENT TENER HOME FOR A BRIEF VACATION

National League Baseball Head Facing Busy Spring and Summer—Good Year in Baseball Expected.

Ex-Governor John K. Tener is at home for a week's vacation, having come Thursday night. He dropped in quietly simply telling his friends he had a chance to get home and to the advantage of it.

As president of the National Baseball league, Mr. Tener is facing a busy spring and summer. This year is to be one of the best years in baseball. The distribution of the Federal league players is going on, and all National teams are being bolstered up. The election of "Jimmy" Callahan as manager of Pittsburgh has injected interest into the local situation and the Pirates are expected to make a hot run for first honors.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ASSESSORS

County Commissioners Inform Them Regarding Coming Primaries

ASSESSORS' BOOKS SENT

The county commissioners are sending out instructions to election assessors for the registration and enrollment of voters for the May primaries. On account of this being a presidential year the primaries come in the spring. The letter sent out follows: "Assistant assessors, or election assessors are required to be at the polling place Tuesday and Wednesday, March 14, and 15, for the purpose of revising the registry lists for the May primary. The party enrollment act does not fix the hours but the regular registration law requires the assessors to be present at the polling places from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. and from 6 to 9 p. m. and the same hours should be observed for this primary registration.

"Books are to be returned to the county commissioners in the enclosed envelope on Thursday, March 16 by mail, as the law does not make provisions for the payment of assessors for the return of the books. Charge for the postage on your bill, blanks for which are enclosed.

"Change party enrollments only on presentation to you of a 'certificate of enrollment' made out in proper form. Make new enrollments under the same method or upon personal application of the voter.

"Bear in mind that the enrollment determines the party ballot of the voter at the primary and if through carelessness with the lists, or mistakes in enrollment, the voter is enrolled in the wrong party, he will lose his vote, as you cannot correct the lists the day of the primary. Accuracy is absolutely essential."

There are 86 precincts to which these letters go. The 1915 books are being sent out and the assessors will make any necessary corrections and hold them for the May primaries on May 16.

Mrs. H. A. Hough of Fayette City visited with her sister Mrs. C. B. Culler of Lookout avenue Thursday.

CONCERT BY HIGH SCHOOL PLEASES

One of Best Musical Offerings Ever Presented Here Given by School Folk

PROF. I. T. DANIEL DIRECTS

What without doubt was one of the best concerts ever given in Charleroi was that at the high school auditorium Thursday night by high school musical organizations. The concert generally was under the direction of Prof. I. T. Daniel, music supervisor of the schools, with Prof. L. Guy Garrett, director of the mandolin club assisting. Opportunity was given every musical club or organization of the high school to show what they were capable of, and the result was a surprise to the large crowd which thronged the auditorium. High school has some unusually promising musical talent.

There were 19 numbers on the program consisting of numbers by the high school orchestra, mandolin club, the high school chorus, two girls' quartets, a male quartet, a double quartet and soloists.

The orchestra played three selections and played them with a spirit and vim that would have done credit to many a professional organization. The same was true of the mandolin club which on Thursday made its first public appearance. This club appeared twice and made a big hit each time.

The two girls' quartets won hearty applause, presenting their songs in splendid shape. The high school male quartet sang one number, "Kentucky Babe" and was accorded tumultuous applause. The double quartet sang exceptionally well.

All the solo numbers were inspiring. Prof. Garret as the first soloist played the William Tell overture in great style as a banjo solo. Miss Grace Chester sang well the contralto solo, "A 'Tis a Dream." Hawley, Wellington and Russell sang the warmest applause for their duet, "No Hope Beyond." White. One of the best numbers of the evening was the soprano solo, "Amaretto," Winne by Miss Mary Thomas, a colored girl of exceptional ability as a vocalist. Misses Thelma Duvall and Grace Fleming pleased greatly with their duet, "The Flower Gatherers," Glover.

In the second part the soloists were Miss Jean Bowers, soprano, Master Felix Repine, clarinetist, Arthur Redout, pianist, and Prof. I. T. Daniel who contributed a bass solo. Miss Bowers rendered in good voice to the appreciative audience the soprano solo, "Goodbye," Tosti. Master Repine aged 14 played "Ernani" Verdi in an artistic manner that would have been a credit to a professional and won an encore. Arthur Redout presented for his piano offering "Priests' March," Mendelssohn and so popularly did he play it that he was forced to respond to an encore.

The ever popular Prof. Daniel, though hard-worked as the responsible person for the concert, put an old-time style and vim into his solo, "Will-o-the-Wisp" Cherry.

The members of one of the girls' quartets were Jean Bowers, Thelma Duvall, Grace Fleming and Grace Chester. The girls' quartet appearing in the second part of the program.

STEALING A RIDE

From Yuma, Arizona, comes the story of a little boy who stole a car and drove it to the city of Charle-roi, Pa., where he was found by the police. The boy, who is about 10 years old, was found in the city of Charle-roi, Pa., where he was found by the police. The boy, who is about 10 years old, was found in the city of Charle-roi, Pa., where he was found by the police.

There are many like this 17-year-old boy scattered over the land. Perhaps they gave way to the first promptings of the wander-lust that seize most young folks in greater or less degree; perhaps things at home were not right and they thought to remedy matters by leaving only to learn that they left sorrow behind and were to find it ahead; to some, doubtless, home never had been anything but a name and the "road" offered a measure of variety as well as comforts equal to any they ever experienced. But the lure of the tramping game is a deceitful one at best; it leads seldom to results that are satisfying; when it leads to mangled limbs and a crushed out life beneath the wheels there can be only pity for the victim and those who, some-where are left to mourn. It is a problem we have always had with us. Much study has been given to it but sometimes the solution seems as far off as ever.

TEACHING FOREIGNERS

J. George Becht, of the State Board of Education, and others at the annual meeting of the National Educational Association at Detroit have termed "archaic" some of the educational process used to Americanize foreigners. And in the main they are striking at a rather ineffective method says the Harrisburg Patriot. The critics term as virtually useless the memorizing of preambles to constitutions, reciting the powers and duties of congress and outlining the functions of departments as well as other information that a native-born, if he acquires it at all, soon forgets and which is far less important in real citizenship than many another thing.

Mr. Becht advocates simple personal instruction of foreign children in the real glories of American citizenship, its freedom but its responsibilities, its liberties but not its licenses and thus acquaint the budding mind with the worth while features of American citizenship. This or anything else that impresses the foreigner or his child with the value, importance and inviolability of the ballot is vastly more vital to the preservation of American freedom and her free institutions than the mechanical sing-song drone of the constitution's preamble.

Eddie Collins, known as baseball's greatest second baseman and hero of several world's series is out with ten commandments which he is pleased to term "The Ten Rules of Life." This pathway to success if followed, according to Eddie, will be productive of better mankind. And Eddie practices what he preaches. Here are the rules:

1. Safeguard your honor.
2. Don't drink alcoholic drinks.
3. Don't overeat.
4. Be a good loser.
5. Smile.
6. Keep good hours.
7. Be a coward to do right.
8. Don't think you know it all.
9. Be prompt.
10. Think clean thoughts.

In Fayette county since the first of the year there have been issued 174 marriage licenses. In the same time there have been 31 divorce proceedings instituted. The ratio is about one to five; that is, for every five marriage licenses. In the same time is sought. What a record! Bring it closer home. Suppose there are 1,500 married couples in Charle-roi. Then imagine of the number that Did As She Was Told.

The teacher said before the school exercises, "Now, Mary, if you forget some of the words when you are singing your song, don't stop. Keep right on. Say tum-tum-tummy-tum, or something like that, and the words will come back to you, and nobody will know the difference. Now don't forget." On exhibition day little Mary electrified her audience with "And she wears a wreath of roses around her tummy-tum-tum." She did as she was told.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Admiral Francis J. Higginson was talking about the war. "But for Britain's sea power," he said, "Germany would now overrun Europe. But Britain's sea power has rather put Germany in the position of the cynical husband."

"George, the evening you proposed," said the gentleman's wife, "you acted—ha, ha, ha—you acted, George, just like a fish out of water."

While a traveler was waiting for an opportunity to show his samples to a merchant a customer came in and bought a couple of nightshirts. Afterward a long lank laborer, with his trousers tied below the knees, said to the merchant:

"What was them things that chap bought?"

"Nightshirts. Can I sell you one or two?"

"No! I should think not! I don't sit about much o' nights!"

"Do animals possess the sentiment of affection?" asked the teacher.

"Yes, ma'am, almost always."

"Correct," said the teacher. Turning to young Harold: "And now tell me what animal has the greatest natural fondness for man?"

With a slight pause the little fellow answered: "Woman."

HOW TO GET STRONG

A Simple Remedy.

Whatever the cause, we want to say to every person who needs strength you need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, as it is the most efficient strength creator we have in our store. Here is proof from Dorchester, Mass.:

"I don't know what we would do without Vinol in our family. I was weak, nervous and run-down as the result of an operation and Vinol restored my strength. Then Gran-mother had a nervous breakdown and Vinol built her up and restored her health and strength after everything else had failed. We have used Vinol for 13 years in our family and would not be without it in the house."

Myrtle L. Healy, Dorchester, Mass. We believe in Vinol because we know it is a great strength creator—due to the extractive medicinal elements of fresh cod livers, without oil, combined with peptonate of iron and beef peptone, all dissolved in a pure medicinal wine, so we always return the purchase money if Vinol fails to benefit those who buy it. SIGNAL FITTER

NOT SORRY NOW
IT COSTS MORE

Does Not Regret His Eating Is More Expensive Due to Tanlac.

It is upon unqualified, detailed endorsements like the following that the monster demand for Tanlac, the Master Medicine, has been built up.

This convincing Tanlac story was told by C. J. Swires of 1819 Eighth Ave., Altoona a signal fitter.

"I have been a great sufferer from catarrh in an advanced stage," Mr. Swires began. "I have used everything I ever heard of, I believe," he continued, "but nothing I used helped me one particle. There were mucus discharges from my nose that affected my throat, violent coughing, offensive breath, impaired appetite, dizzy spells, and altogether, I was in a nervous, run-down condition, and contracted colds."

"I heard of the wonderful work of this new medicine Tanlac and I immediately got me some of the medicine. I am certainly glad that I purchased the medicine and began taking it when I did, as it has done me a world of good. I have taken two bottles of Tanlac and am now on my third. This statement of mine is therefore not hasty but is based on ample proof. All the symptoms from which I have suffered have disappeared and I believe Tanlac has cured me. I am, however going to keep on taking the medicine as I believe I will get better than I ever was in my life."

Tanlac is now sold in Charle-roi exclusively by Pipers Pharmacy where the premier preparation can be had.

Old White "Valve-in-Head" Buick Wins First Money in Hyatt Contest

With a record of 261,800 miles, equal to more than ten times around the world, to its credit, a 1909 Buick, owned by F. E. Slason, of Plainville, Kan., made the most remarkable showing of any car in the mileage contest conducted by the Hyatt Roller Bearing Co. The object of the contest was to learn how far automobiles have run in everyday service upon their original equipment of Hyatt bearings. Mr. Slason was awarded the first prize of $500. More than 300 tires, costing $8,000, were worn out by the car.

STICKING TO A PRINCIPLE

The Buick Motor Company, alone of all companies, has adhered to one principle of motor construction since it started in business fourteen years ago. Every Buick catalog for the fourteen years Buicks have been manufactured has emphasized the Valve-in-Head motor principle.

The first Buick motor car ever made had a Valve-in-Head motor.

The three hundred Buick motor cars shipped today—and every day this season—all have Valve-in-Head motors. The quarter of a million Buicks that have been built since the company started in business all have the Valve-in-Head motors. They are all alike as far as their motor principle is concerned.

That this is a sound principle is proven by the fact that most of the first Buicks are still in use. At the Buick factory at Flint we are today handling all our tremendous volume of hauling with trucks equipped with the first Valve-in-Head motors the Buick Company ever made.

The soundness of this principle is further established by the almost daily announcements of competing manufacturers to make and market cars with Valve-in-Head motors.

We confidently predict that within a very few years all motor car manufacturers will use Valve-in-Head motors.

The public has learned that the Valve-in-Head motor is every way superior—in power, in economy, in dependability. Hence the ever increasing demand that will not be satisfied with any other motor type. Hence the demand for 1916 six-cylinder Valve-in-Head Buick Motor Cars—a demand which we believe is more insistent than any previous demand for any manufactured product.

AMONG THE THEATRES

PALACE—CHARLEROI

An honest-to-goodness Belgian nobleman visited Charleroi this week in the person of Baron van der Nott of Antwerp who appeared the first part of this week at the Palace theatre to describe the Titanic disaster of memory of which he was a survivor and to speak of the conditions in Belgium and other countries engulfed in the world war. The vaudeville program the forepart of the week was especially entertaining. Bert De Von & Co. presented their one act dancing and comedy act. Clare Raymond appeared as the emperor of music. The headliner vaudeville feature the last three days is the Merry Minstrel Four with a feature minstrel musical act. Virginia Fern is appearing as the whistling girl and Beatrice and Mack are presenting their comedy performance. Moving picture dramas featuring the bill this week included "The Embodied Thot," "Bill Peter's Kid" and others.

COYLE—CHARLEROI

Aside from his regular program this week Manager R. S. Coyle made the preliminary announcements of "The Battle of Peace," one of the most noted dramas of the day to be produced at his house on March 23 and 24, when Nirella's orchestra of 15 pieces will play. In his present tation of his program this week Manager Coyle featured the Fox drama, "Mere Mary Ann," Israel Zangwill's masterpiece on Monday, the tiny Marguerite Clark in the Paramount drama "Mice and Men" on Tuesday, Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in the Metro feature, "Kiss and His Soul" on Wednesday and the Paramount masterpiece, "The Golden Chance" on Thursday. "The Sphinx" is the Friday production. To select the leader among them all would be to merely state an opinion that would only be an individual opinion. The Zangwill play on Monday however was a strong one and the Tuesday presentation with Marguerite Clark was usually entertaining.

MAJESTIC—CHARLEROI

This was a week of big features at the Majestic theatre and large crowds were entertained nightly at the different shows. On Monday the attraction was Florence Rockwell in "Body and Soul," a Frohman feature. In the week's other good pictures. On Tuesday was featured the famous Triangle Keystone play, "Mice of the Alamo," narrating an unusual story. An all star cast was presented. One of the most interesting features of the week however was that on Wednesday of "The Love Trail," featuring Agnes Glynn, the story being adapted from Richard Dehan's celebrated novel "The Dope Doctor." In the drama Miss Glynn assumed the role of an orphan thrown on her own resources and of her experiences. Marie Empress was featured Thursday in "Love's Cross Roads," a sterling attraction. Friday's attraction is "On the Other Side of the Door."

ALVIN—PITTSBURG

Mr. Sothorn's farewell appearances in Pittsburgh are announced at the Alvin Theatre for the week beginning Monday, March 6, and the last opportunities to witness the work of this admirable actor are at hand. He will appear in a new modern comedy, "The Two Virtues." The story concerns itself with the attachment that a rich, pedantic bachelor forms for a woman who has been branded by his relatives and friends as an utterly abandoned creature. However, he discovers in her qualities of innate nobility, culture and intellect that places her high above the petty estimation of her detractors. At last even in the face of the blackest evidence against her character, he marries her, thereby appalling his snobbish sister and the rest of his kinsmen and acquaintances. In theme and treatment "The Two Virtues" is declared to be strikingly original.

GRAND—PITTSBURG

Commencing with the usual Monday matinee on March 6, the Harry Davis Stock company at the Grand Opera House, will present one of the most unusual, and powerful domestic dramas that has been seen on the stage in a decade. It is George Broadhurst's startling work with the title "The Price." It contains three superb acts, depicts modern love, tragedy, and nobleness of character. It is the play that had its initial production with Helen Ware in the title role. "The Price" is a story of a young girl who had been reared in luxury but left suddenly penniless, and accepts a position as private secretary for a noted artist. This artist had prior to this been ill mated in marriage, whose wife being the daughter of his landlady. He turns to his charming secretary for inspiration and finds it, and falls in love with her. The Harry Davis stock company at the Grand Opera house has in store for it in this production, one of the most powerful character portrayals it has been called upon to produce this season.

NEW DAVIS—PITTSBURG

A program of extraordinary vaudeville at the New Davis theatre next week, beginning Monday afternoon, March 6th, will focus public interest upon Lillian Russell, who, surrounded by a group of nine of the best acts on the Keith circuit, will entertain with songs and monology. Miss Russell, who has been widely described as "America's loveliest woman," has just concluded a tour of the west. An item of special interest to woman folk anent Miss Russell's appearance will be her sartorial display. She has a very extensive wardrobe of hand-made exclusively for his Pittsburgh performances. The acts in the bill with Miss Russell will include, among a wide variety of specialties, Foster Ball and Ford West in what is considered the finest bit of character work on the vaudeville stage. They will appear in "Since the Days of '61," a study of a Civil War veteran as contrasted with a young man of today. This act will probably share the honors with the headliner while for thrills novelty and spectacular effect the palm will likely go to the Lumette Sisters, the whirling Geisha girls who swing swiftly through space suspended by their teeth.

QUITS NUMEROUS JOBS TO DEPART THE COURTY

John W. Sarver, High Constable, Constable, Chief of Police and Other Things Too Numerous to Mention Says He Will Leave State.

John W. Sarver of Marianna, who probably held more offices in one borough than any other man in the state has shaken the dust of this county and state from his feet and has gone to locate in other territory. This was a part of the agreement in the settlement of two prosecutions made against him recently by Edward H. Miller of Marianna. In these Sarver was charged with violating the election laws and with being drunk while on duty as an officer. The costs $14.80 in one case, and $21.50 in the other, have been paid.

In addition to paying the costs and agreeing to leave the state Sarver has resigned from all the offices that he held. He was high constable, constable, chief of police, assessor and health officer in the borough of Marianna. His resignations have been forwarded to the council of that borough.

Sarver has been an officer in this county intermittently for many years and has figured before the court several times. He was located for years about Monongahela, his home section. He won considerable notoriety when he was arrested charged with participating in a holdup near California. For this crime he was tried, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary. He served his time.

Following his release from prison he apparently settled down for a time and later located at Marianna. He was an efficient officer, but it is said, was not inclined to stick to the straight and narrow way. He had been in trouble frequently since being at Marianna.

In the case just settled he was charged as being drunk as an assessor of poll taxes and also with going behind the guard rails in the election booth, while intoxicated and attempting to interfere with the duties of the election board.

Child's Death An Accident.

That the death of Ella Keakil, aged 6, under the wheels of arolley car at Monessen Thursday evening was purely an accident was the opinion of the coroner's jury sitting in the inquest Friday evening at Monessen. They absolved the motorman of the car, Charles Moody from blame. The child darted from in front of an automobile in the path of the car.

Scallop Salad.

Soak one pint of scallops for one hour in salted water, drain, cover with boiling water to which one tablespoon of vinegar has been added, let simmer five minutes, drain again, chill and cut into thin slices. Add half the quantity of finely cut celery, mix with mayonnaise or boiled dressing, and sprinkle with one teaspoonful each of finely chopped chives, gherkins and olives.

Baked Squash With Cheese.

The squash should be scraped free from seeds and baked in its shell, after it has first been cut in quarters. When well baked it is scraped from the shell, put in a buttered silver baking dish, spread with butter and seasoned with salt and pepper, after having been mashed. When it is sprinkled with a generous quantity of grated parmesan cheese it is browned very quickly in a hot oven.

Fish Balls.

Cut enough salt fish in small pieces to make one cupful. Pare and cut in to small pieces potatoes to make two cupfuls. Cook in water to cover until potatoes are done. (Put the fish in at the same time.) Drain thoroughly the fish and potato and add half a tablespoonful of butter and one beaten egg, with pepper and salt. Mash and beat the whole. Drop from a spoon in hot fat.

Cream.

Take half pint of cream, one cupful confectioners' sugar, three dessert-spoonfuls of cocoa, half teaspoonful of vanilla. Mix all together, then let stand one hour, and then beat until thick, and spread on cake.

Apricot Pie.

Two pounds evaporated apricots stewed in enough water to cover them and more; add two cupfuls of sugar and proceed as with any other pie; bake with two crusts. This makes three pies.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Brown Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cleveland, Ohio.—For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains.

A friend who is a nurse said for me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home.—Mrs. W. C. Brown, 1169 Auburn Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.
